

Boat name:

Sail number:

Boat type:

Num i ISAF OSR	Description in ISAF OSR 2010-2011	Comments	Personal control	Promotor's control	Promotor's approval
2.03.1	Inspect that all security equipment function properly
2.03.2	Heavy items shall be securely fastened
3.02	Watertight integrity of the hull
3.04/3.05	Stability of the boat
3.08	Hatches & Companionways
3.09.8	Cockpit drains
3.10	Sea Coks or Valves
3.14	Pulpits, Stanchions, Lifelines NB: The lifelines shall be uncoated If coated, 5% time will be added.
3.17	Toe Rail or Foot - Stop
3.18	Toilet
3.19	Bunks
3.20	Cooking Facilities
3.21	Drinking Water Tanks & Drinking Water. NB: 9 liters for emergency
3.23	Bilge Pumps and Buckets
3.23.5.a	Two permanent installed manual bilge pumps, one operable from above, the other from below deck
3.24	Compass 2 pc.
3.27	Navigation Lights
3.28	Engines, Generators, Fuel and batteries
3.29	Communications Equipment. NB: VHF, a hand-held VHF, radio receiver for weather bulletins and GPS
4.03	Soft Wood Plugs
4.04	Jackstays, Clipping Points Static Safety Lines
4.05	Fire Extinguishers
4.06	Anchors
4.07	Flashlights
4.08	First Aid Manual and First Aid Kit
4.09	Foghorn
4.10	Radar Reflector
4.11.1	Charts

Numb i ISAF OSR	Description in ISAF OSR 2010-2011	Comments	Personal control	Promotor's control	Promotor's approval
4.12	Safety Equipment Location Chart
4.13	Echo Sounder or Lead Line
4.14	Speedometer or Distance Measuring Instrument (log)
4.15	Emergency Steering
4.16	Tools and Spare Parts
4.17	Yacht's name on equipment
4.22	Lifebuoys
4.23	Pyrotechnic and Light Signals
4.24	Heaving Line
4.25	Cockpit Knife
4.26	Storm & Heavy Weather Sail. NB: A heavy-weather jib and a main sail with reefing to under 40%
5.01	Lifejackets
5.02	Safety Harness and Safety Lines
Extra for Shorthanded:
At least one of the crew shall have undertaken training in security with certificate
At least one of the crew shall have VHF certificate

The boat is controlled according to the list.

Points that are not ok, but wil be fixed before start, has a comment in the colon for comments.

Date:

Skipper/Helmsman:

signature

Sail number: